Dear Mr Welby,

Thank you for your cheque for the sum of £1,309.89, received today.

I decided to drop you a line to thank you for your most efficient and speedy service. I couldn't quite believe that, within just one week, you managed to recover the money from this particularly difficult customer. I was chasing him, with dozens of phone calls, for over six months.

In addition, I was pleasantly surprised that our customer paid your fees, which I was expecting to pay. This means that your service was, not only quick and effective, but also free. Who can ask for more?

I shall recommend your services to all my business friends!

Thank you again!

Yours sincerely

Ivan Stuparich
